

Philadelphia-Camden-Wilmington, PA-NJ-DE-MD

- In 2007, the Philadelphia-Camden-Wilmington metropolitan area was the 13th largest export market in the United States, with sales totaling $18.9 billion.
- Canada was the leading export destination for Philadelphia's exports of goods in 2007. Other leading destinations were the United Kingdom and Mexico.
- Chemicals was the top Philadelphia export category in 2007, accounting for $6.5 billion, or 34 percent, of exported goods.
- Other top exports were computer and electronic products ($2.3 billion, 12 percent); transportation equipment ($1.7 billion, 9 percent); machinery, except electrical ($1.1 billion, 6 percent); and primary metal manufacturing ($853 million, 5 percent).

Data year: 2007. Last updated: February 11, 2009.

Contact: Liz Clark (202-482-5732) & Michael Greene (202-482-2551), Office of Trade and Industry Information